PETITIONING THE COURT

You shall abide by all the requirements of the program, which will include electronic monitoring or other location verification system. You shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, Court ordered obligations, or other activities as pre approved by the supervising officer.

CAUSE

On April 13, 2011, the Court ordered Ms. Jim to participate in the home confinement program without electronic monitoring commencing July 6, 2011. A schedule was developed and a copy of the schedule was given to the defendant.

On October 18, 2011, a home visit was conducted at the defendant's residence. The defendant was not at her residence and it was past her home confinement schedule. The following day Ms. Jim called this officer and advised she had taken her daughter to get a haircut and to purchase a screen for their fireplace. She was confronted and reminded that this has been an ongoing issue, as she has failed to be home during her home confinement period on two prior occasions. As a result for this violation and the prior warnings she has had, Ms. Jim agreed to be placed on home confinement with electronic monitoring for a period of 30 days.
